

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Karon Fuller has devoted her career to serving faculty, staff, and students as Director of Human Resources for The University of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Since 1971, Karon has served within the human resource field and as a resource not only to the University, but also to other human resource professionals within the Board of Regents and throughout the state; and,

Whereas, After 35 years of reliable, courteous service, Karon has made a positive difference in the quality of life at the University in the successful attainment of the University of South Dakota's mission to educate the citizens of South Dakota and the region; and,

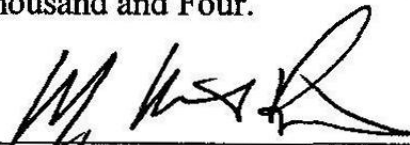

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement on June 17, 2004:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 17, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I join her family and many friends from the University of South Dakota, other state agencies, and the Vermillion community in wishing her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
